Monster Double Bill for Today at the

A monster double bell will be shown at the Auditorium today. The same program also will be shown at the Majestic Roof Garden on all fair nights. Miss Eithel Clayton in Man's Woman, a strong drama in five parts, of everyday modern life, is the bright feature. Joia Dana, a clever leading lady who features some programs, is our added attraction in The Innocence of Ruth, a five-part story of New York city. There will be no advance in prices for the excellent double program.

MAJESTIC ROOF GARDEN.

Don't fail to spend your night before the Fourth at the Majestic Roof Garden under new management. The same excellent picture program as offered at the Auditorium will be shown twice nightly, 7.45 and 9. Dancing from 8 to 11 with music furnished by the new Majestic orchestra under the leadership of Frank G. Benson. There will be a prize dance every Wednesday night at 9.30. Come any time and stay as long as you like. Doors open at 7 o'clock. Admission 10c. Always a good show.

CONTROVERSY IN SENATE OVER PROHIBITION CLAUSE

May Cause Enforcement of Cloture for Passage of Food Control

Washington, July 2 .- Controversy in the senate over the food control and its prohibition feature reached such an acute stage today that formal steps were taken by administration leaders to limit debate and force a final vote this week by invoking, for the first time, the senate's new cloture rule. Within a half hour more than the necessary sixteen signatures to a clo-ture motion were secured. Senator Chamberlain, in charge of the bill, an-

BREED THEATRE.

Shirley Mason in The Law of the North, Feature for Today—Lionel Barrymore Coming Wednesday and Thursday in The Millionaire's Double.

The feature screen production at the Breed theatre today is The Law of the North, an exciting, romantic story of the northwest, featuring the bewitching little star, Shirley Mason. Other pictures on the bill include The Green Door, an O. Henry comedy drama in two parts, and the Hearst Pathe news. For Wednesday and Thursday the Breed will present a gala holiday bill which is headed by Lionel Barrymore in The Millionaire's Double, a five-act Metru wonderplay from the etory by June Mathls, It is a powerful play of fove mystery and millions. The Paramount-Burton Holmes travel series will be shown and a very funny pne-reel comedy will complete the bill. dition to food and fuels, to Iron and steel, copper, cotton, wool, hides and skins, lead, aluminum, fertilizers, farm implements, hemp and other binding twine materials and their products.

A fast and furious skirmish on prohibition occurred for a half hour just before the senate recessed tonight to meet an hour earlier than usual tomorrow. The "wets" and "drys" clashed when Senator Penrose, opposing any attempt at cloture, suggested AUDITORIUM.
